

Just Governance Group is seeking Senior International Development Consultants

www.justgovernancegroup.org

The Just Governance Group (JGG) is seeking senior consultants to be placed on a roster for first consideration when we are selecting qualified consultants for bids or contracts. The deadline for applying to this roster is December 7, 2011.

The Just Governance Group is recognized internationally for excellence in consulting services and development initiatives related to good governance. These services and initiatives are based on comprehensive research and analysis that take into account the political, social, cultural and economic context in the country or region of focus.

The competencies, qualities and experience required are set out below:

Qualities:

- commitment to JGG's mission, vision and strategic objectives
- commitment to active participation in JGG's international learning community
- commitment to participatory methodologies

Competencies:

- effective cross-cultural communications skills
- strong facilitation and leadership skills
- proven ability to work with a diverse range of people from different communities
- bilingual English and Spanish (speaking, reading, writing), with excellent report writing skills
- thematic expertise in human rights, access to justice, conflict and peace-building, and/or democratic development

Experience:

- no less than 5 years experience as a full-time consultant
- consulting experience in project planning, monitoring and/or evaluation
- consulting experience in research, scoping and desk studies and/or investigation
- experience as a team leader for consulting teams of at least 3 individuals
- extensive experience in countries in South and Central America
- experience on posting to at least one developing country

International applicants are welcome. Qualified women and members of social minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.

The deadline for submissions is December 7, 2011. Please send your CV, a cover letter (maximum 2 pages) describing your ability to contribute to the Just Governance Group's consultancy function, and the names of three references with valid contact information, to info@justgovernancegroup.org

Applications in Spanish or English are acceptable.

If you are selected for the next round of the selection process for this roster, you will be contacted for an interview.
